

HOME RANCH CHARDONNAY

Dry Creek Valley | Sonoma County

PRESS COMPOSITE

2014

88 points | Wine Advocate, March 2016
“...the 2014 Chardonnay Home Ranch – a terrific value in Chardonnay that is barrel-fermented in about 30% French oak and aged 10 months prior to bottling.”

2013

93 points | Wine Advocate, Dec. 2015
“Sbragia displays a Midas touch with Chardonnay, and the 2013 Chardonnay Home Ranch is a big-time winner.”

Gold Medal | Winemaker Challenge, Jan. 2016

88 points | Wine Spectator, Dec. 2016
“There’s plenty to enjoy here. Drink now.”

88 points | Wine Enthusiast, April 2017
“A flintiness mixes with lemon peel in this full-bodied, oak-driven white with aspects of freshness that balance the more concentrated flavor and texture.”

92 points | Wine Spectator, Dec. 2015
‘Editor’s Favorite’ ‘Best Buy’- “Beautifully crafted, rich and expansive, offering a slow-building mix of green apple, tangerine, white peach and honeydew.”

Gold Medal | WSWA Wine Competition, April 2016

“TOP 30 CHARDONNAY PRODUCER IN CALIFORNIA.”

James Laube, Wine Spectator, April, 2012

“Sbragia displays a Midas touch with Chardonnay.”

Robert Parker, Jr., Wine Advocate, December, 2014

92 points | Wine Advocate, Dec. 2015
“It sells for a song given its quality.”

Silver Medal
2015 San Francisco International Wine Competition

91 points | Wine Spectator, July 2015
“Intense tropical fruit, pineapple, citrus and melon are at the core of this moderately rich, full-bodied effort, ending with a hint of butterscotch. Maintains depth and focus. Drink now through 2019.”

2011

90 points | Wine Advocate, Dec. 2013
“The 2011 showcases Ed Sbragia’s Midas touch with this varietal. Resembling a premier cru Meursault, it achieved 13.8% natural alcohol.”

91 points | Antonio Galloni, July 2013
“The 2011 Chardonnay Home Ranch is drop-dead gorgeous.”

AS WINEMASTER at Beringer Vineyards, Ed Sbragia received Wine Spectator ‘Wine of the Year’ for 1994 Beringer Private Reserve Chardonnay.
