"Bold, rich and spicy, with a juicy core of melon, fig, green apple and citrus flavors, shaded by light spicy oak. Young and edgy, this can stand a little cellar time. Drink now through 2020."
—James Laube, Wine Spectator, Spring 2017

WINEMAKER NOTES

Farmed by our family for decades, Home Ranch Vineyard is located at the southeast end of Dry Creek Valley, where temperatures are cooler than most of the appellation. The 2016 growing season was a great one; there were consistent temperatures which contributed to a long hang time and deep, developed flavors. This vintage has fresh aromas of apples and citrus, mainly lemon, with a slight hint of vanilla, to round out an overall crisp and vibrant wine.
