DRY CREEK VALLEY SAUVIGNON BLANC

When crafting the Dry Creek Valley Sauvignon Blanc we chose stainless steel fermentation to protect the brightness of the fruit. The wine is bottled under screwcap closure to retain its fresh characteristics, enticing bouquet and bright flavors.

Its refreshing profile has made it a favorite around the country which we're thrilled about. The 2012 has citrus and tropical aromas that are accented by bright flavors of green apple, grapefruit and lemongrass, and a lovely minerality that carries into a refreshing finish.

Rated 90

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

"Pungent aromas of lemon, lime and pineapple. A juicy, sweet fruit bomb in the mouth, with the pineapple flavor dominating. Boasts good density and verve and finishes with very good length. Delicious, and a very good value by California sauvignon standards." –S. T.

Rated 90

Stephen Tanzer's International Wine Cellar

"Bright aromas of tropical fruits, lemon, gooseberry and white pepper, plus a rocky nuance. Offers good musky lift to the intense tropical fruit flavors. Finishes bright and tight, with pleasing savory length. A very good value." –S. T.
